

SOCIOLOGY: CULTURE NONVERBAL COMMUNICATION

See Chapter 6, p. 148+

1. Jack Aiello
2. Kathy Bell
3. Howard Friedman
4. Robert Gifford
5. Jerry Ginsburg
6. Marvin Hecht
7. Nancy Henley
8. Dick Heslin
9. Ursula Hess
10. Lucy Johnston
11. Arvid Kappas
12. Caroline Keating
13. Janice Kelly
14. Robert Kleck
15. Vladimir J. Konecni
16. Bob Krauss
17. Matthew Lieberman
18. Pacori Marco
19. Marilyn Mendolia
20. Dawn T. Robinson
21. Jim Russell
22. Klaus R. Scherer
23. Jonathan Schroeder

A. Nonverbal Communication

#1-11 Relationships: Select three items from the list that you think are most important. Comment/reflect on each of your selections.

#12-23 Listening: Select three items from the list that you think are most important. Comment/reflect on each of your selections.

B. Nonverbal Dictionary

Select an item of interest. Summarize and comment/reflect.

C. SPN Researcher Profile

1. Type the name of your researcher in the search/locator box. Enter.

2. Scroll down and find the SPN Profile.

3. Summarize the research academic background and general research interests of your researcher.

4. What particular aspect of nonverbal communication is this researcher interested in?

D. Honors only Personal Research

Select an aspect of nonverbal communication that interests you. Find a scholarly article that deals with this subject.

1. Cite the article

2. Summarize the major ideas presented in the article.

3. How did this article's contents relate to our study of culture?

Word Processed Assignment: See Policy for requirements.